

TORONTO - 416.287.3107
DURHAM - 905.686.3333
FAX - 905.686.8546

AERIAL PRE-WORK CHECKLIST

For all Aerial Platforms and Lift equipment.

Employer / Production: _____ Supervisor: _____

Technician / Crew: _____

Date: _____ Location: _____

Equipment Type:  Boom  Scissor  Vertical Lift  Telehandler  Other _____

By checking the boxes on this form you are indicating yes to the question , and agree to adhere to all safe operating practices

- Operator has valid certificate / license for type of equipment required
- Operator has read and understands the operator's manual and it will be reference where necessary
- Is lift equipment suitable for job task as outlined by the manufacturer
- Job area inspected for dangers (wires, underground cavities, holes, slopes, soft ground, traffic, etc)
- Visual and operational checks completed as per manufacturer's specifications
- All warnings and safety decals are visible
- Machine is fueled or charged
- Inspection tag dated less than three month's old
- Proper clothes and safety equipment available for the job
- Harnesses and lanyards inspected and used
- No environmental hazards noted (wind, visibility, storms, lightning, snow, cold, ice, water, etc)
- A ground spotter is available, if necessary (when working around hydro wires or any other dangers)
- Operator states that they are not under the influence of alcohol, or any legal, illegal drug that would affect their ability to operate this equipment
- Other co-workers have been warned of equipment operations
- Platform is loaded correctly, if applicable, and within manufacturer's load limits
- A written rescue plan has been submitted to the supervisor and communicated to all necessary personnel

Safety Contact Name: _____ Phone Number: _____

NOTES:

Failure to comply may result in injury or death.

Also, you may be subject charges and fines under the Occupational Health and Safety Act and if found to be criminally negligent, you can be charged under bill C-45 of the criminal code.